

Judy Szewczak Scholars Award

Judy Szewczak's entire professional life was devoted to education, most of which was spent teaching Social Studies at Bowsher High School. She had a passion for history and loved nothing more than when she ignited that same passion in her students. This scholarship is to celebrate her teaching contributions and reward students who demonstrate excellence in their own academic pursuits. Two $1,500 scholarships will be awarded in her name annually. The scholarship must be used for college tuition or related college expenses.
